

Shop Local and Support Refugee Families!

The Microenterprise Development (MED) Program of the IRC helps refugee and asylee entrepreneurs in Phoenix start and expand their small businesses through the provision of technical assistance, referrals, and access to microenterprise loans. Over the life of the program, MED has helped over 160 small businesses with loans and technical assistance.

The New Roots Farm Program of the IRC is designed to help refugee farming families achieve food security, self-sufficiency, and economic empowerment through their agricultural businesses. Currently, New Roots operates 4 community gardens across 6 acres, where 12 refugee families grow produce.

The Child Care Microenterprise Development Program of the IRC seeks to assist potential entrepreneurial refugee child care providers to obtain a license and start their own child care businesses. Over the life of the program, 94 Refugees have been trained and 31 refugees have become certified child care providers.
