

INTERNATIONAL RESCUE COMMITTEE, INC. Uganda

BID NOTICE

CONSTRUCTION OF ISOLATION UNITS, CHAIN LINK FENCE AND LATRINE WITH BATH SHELTERS IN PALABEK REFUGEE SETTLEMENT, LAMWO DISTRICT

The International Rescue Committee, hereinafter referred to as “the IRC”, is a non-profit, humanitarian agency that provides relief, rehabilitation, protection, resettlement services, and advocacy for refugees, displaced persons and victims of oppression and violent conflict. The IRC has been working in Uganda since 1998 in response to mass displacement and devastation wrought by the rebel group, the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA). Since then, in partnership with various donors, the IRC in Uganda has expanded to meet the needs of the conflict-affected regions of Karamoja and Acholi, and in the West Nile region, South Western Uganda as well as amongst urban refugees in Kampala and has a requirement for construction works.

The IRC Uganda program invites applications from interested contractors for construction works listed in the table below.
